

Media Advisory**

Congressman Wilson to Host Recovery Event in Marietta
Wilson Will Make Major Recovery Announcement

Washington, D.C. – On Thursday, April 16, Congressman Charlie Wilson (OH-6) will make a major announcement about The National Guard Armory in Marietta and several hundred thousand dollars worth of federal transit funding from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. While there, Congressman Wilson will also be able to update the local community on Recovery funded weatherization efforts that will benefit Marietta citizens.

What:

1. Major announcement involving Marietta's National Guard Armory and Recovery funding.
2. Update on weatherization program funded with Recovery money.

Who:

Congressman Charlie Wilson, Ohio's Sixth District
Mayor Michael Mullen, Marietta
Commissioner Cora Marshall, Washington County
Commissioner Steve Weber, Washington County
Commissioner Sam Cook, Washington County
Terry Tamburini, Economic Development Director for Washington County
Clint Pifer, Landscape Engineer
David Brightbill, Executive Director Washington/Morgan Community Action
Darla Johnson, Director of Housing & Transportation, Washington/Morgan Community Action

Where:

Congressman Wilson's District Office
258 Front St.
Marietta, OH 45750

(Across the street from the Armory)

When:

April 16, 2009
10:30 a.m.